BASIC FIELD MANUAL

LIST OF TRAINING PUBLICATIONS

(The matter contained herein supersedes TR 1-10, January 3, 1939.)

SECTION I GENERAL

■ 1. SCOPE.—War Department publications pertaining to training are, as a general rule, issued in the form of Field Service Regulations, Field Manuals, Technical Regulations, and Training Manuals. Training Regulations will eventually be eliminated by the gradual inclusion of suitable material in other training documents.

a. Field Service Regulations.—Field Service Regulations constitute the basis of instruction of all arms and services in the operations of war and announce the basic doctrines which are expanded and applied in other texts. They contain the fundamental considerations concerning the employment of the combined arms and the combined services, and the strategical, tactical, and administrative employment of larger units and territorial commands. For convenience, Field Service Regulations are numbered in the Field Manual series.

b. Field Manuals.—Field Manuals constitute the primary means for expanding the basic doctrines of the Field Service Regulations. They are to be used, with the Field Service Regulations, as the primary texts for training in schools, including extension courses, in garrison, and in the field, being supplemented where necessary by other authorized publications. Field Manuals will be numbered from 1 to 1000 and referred to as "FM 22-5", etc., or "FM 22-5, Infantry Drill Regulations," etc. They are published in three general divisions as follows:

(1) Field Manuals for the arms and services.—The Field Manuals for the several arms and services contain instructions relative to the tactics and technique involved in the employment of such arms and services, together with data needed in the theater of operations.

(2) Basic Field Manuals.—The Basic Field Manuals contain training and reference data applicable to more than one arm or service; with special reference to the smaller units.

(3) Staff Officers' Field Manual.—The Staff Officers' Field Manual is a compilation of information and data to be used as a guide for the operations in the field of the general staff or a similar staff group of all units in peace and war.

c. Technical regulations.—(1) Technical Regulations consist of a series of pamphlets supplementing the Field Manuals and covering subjects of a technical nature, the separate treatment of which is considered essential to a fuller accomplishment of the training prescribed in the Field Manual series. The scope of this series includes—

(a) Pamphlets describing arms, equipment, and materials, and containing instructions for the operation, care, and handling thereof.

(b) Information and instructions as to technical procedures, exclusive of those of an administrative nature.

(2) Technical Regulations will be numbered from 1000 to 2000 and referred to, when abbreviated, as TR 1075-5, etc.

d. Training Manuals.—(1) Training Manuals consist of a series of pamphlets published in elaboration of Field Manuals and contain instructions on methods of procedure to be followed in the performance of or instruction in certain duties of a training nature. These pamphlets may be in the nature of—

(a) Guidebooks for instructors.

(b) Guidebooks for the specialist.

(c) Self-instruction pamphlets for the student in a specialist duty.

(2) Training Manuals will be numbered from 2000 to 3000 and referred to, when abbreviated, as TM 2000-5, etc.

■ 2. CHANGES.—a. How effected.—When the subject matter contained in a pamphlet is changed or corrected, it will be published as a change only when it is deemed inadvisable to revise and reprint the entire pamphlet.

b. When promulgated.—Changes will, as a general rule, be published once a year and as near the beginning of the calendar year as possible. The year in which the change is made will follow the classification number at the end of each paragraph. A change requiring immediate attention will be published in a War Department numbered circular.

c. How published.—Changes will be published on one side of the page only so that they may be cut and pasted over the matter which they change.

d. How numbered.—Changes will be numbered in a single series for each edition of each pamphlet, a new series being started with the first change pertaining to an edition.

e. Drafts.—Drafts of matter submitted for publication as changes will contain both the existing and the proposed matter, the matter to be omitted, with a line drawn through it, and the proposed matter underscored.

f. Minor changes.—Minor changes, such as those intended merely to change the rhetorical construction of a portion of regulations for purposes of clarity or those not involving a change of principle, will be allowed to accumulate and will be published in a revision of the regulations in question.

g. Changes affecting other publications.—When changes are prepared which may affect other War Department publications or portions thereof to the extent of requiring modifications of the latter, changes to the other publications so affected will be prepared and submitted at the same time.

■ 3. COPYRIGHTED MATTER.—See AR 310-10.

■ 4. HOW DISTRIBUTED.—Training publications and changes thereto will be distributed through the distributing agencies enumerated in AR 310-200, to personnel of the Army on active duty, to Regular Army headquarters, and to offices at which Regular Army personnel are on duty.

■ 5. ALLOWANCES.—a. The initial distribution of pamphlets will be in accordance with the following unless otherwise directed:

(1) Nine copies of every pamphlet to the headquarters of each corps area or department.

(2) Five copies of every pamphlet to the headquarters of each active Regular Army division.

(3) Two copies of every pamphlet to—

(a) Office of each chief of arm, service, and the National Guard Bureau.

(b) Headquarters of each National Guard division to which a Regular Army instructor is detailed.

(c) Headquarters of each division of the Organized Reserves to which an officer of the Regular Army is assigned.

- (d) Headquarters of each general and special service school.
- (e) Headquarters of the United States Military Academy.
- (4) One copy of every pamphlet for—
 - (a) Headquarters of each garrisoned post or camp.
 - (b) The official office file of the professor of military science and tactics of each educational institution maintaining Reserve Officers' Training Corps or section 55c NDA units.
- (5) To headquarters, offices, and personnel other than the above, as indicated opposite each pamphlet in the list under paragraph 6.

b. Pamphlets designated in paragraph 6 for distribution to noncommissioned officers and specialists will be issued to the organization or office with which they are serving. Such pamphlets will remain with the organization or office and will not become the personal property of noncommissioned officers or specialists, but will be distributed to them in such numbers as the training needs of the organization or activity require.

c. Any individual of the Regular Army, any Regular Army headquarters, or any office at which Regular Army personnel are on duty may, on showing need for the same, obtain any printed pamphlet by applying to the distributing agency serving them regardless of whether the desired pamphlet is one that is designated herein for distribution to that individual, headquarters, or office.

SECTION II

LIST

■ 6. GENERAL.—a. The lists in paragraphs 7, 8, 9, and 10 show the pamphlets published to date by number, title, and date of publication, together with symbols indicating the distribution of each pamphlet.

b. Explanation of symbols.—A combination of letters, indicating the basic class of the distribution, and numbers, indicating the specific arms or services to which the distribution in that class is limited, is used. The meanings of these are as follows:

(1) Letters.

O.—Officers of all grades. No distinction is made between field officers and junior officers.

N.—All noncommissioned officers.

C.—Headquarters of companies and similar units only.

H.—Headquarters and offices. This distribution is in addition to that provided for in paragraph 5*a* (1), (2), (3), and (4). It includes—

(a) All Regular Army organizational headquarters from brigade to company (or similar unit), inclusive.

(b) The technical, supply, and administrative offices at corps area, department, and Regular Army divisional headquarters and at posts, camps, or stations.

(c) The offices of S-1, S-2, S-3, and S-4 at Regular Army brigade and regimental (or similar unit) headquarters. The staffs of separate battalion or like headquarters are included in this distribution.

(d) Offices, not strictly of the Regular establishment, at which Regular Army personnel are on duty, such as the offices of instructors with the National Guard and offices of the Regular Army personnel on duty with the Organized Reserves. The reference library of each educational institution maintaining one or more units of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps is entitled to receive for each unit one copy of the training publications pertaining to the unit. Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps units will be given the same distribution as senior infantry units.

I.—Noncommissioned officers of interested organizations only.

S.—Interested specialists.

K.—Headquarters of interested organizations and interested offices. This follows the outline of distribution H but restricts the distribution of a pamphlet to those headquarters and officers having an interest therein. It is given a liberal interpretation with regard to offices.

L.—Officers of interested organizations only.

X.—Special distribution as directed by the War Department.

In distributions I, S, K, and L the character of the pamphlet determines the personnel or headquarters to which it is distributed.

(2) Numbers.—(a) When not in parentheses, numbers are used to indicate the various arms and services, as follows:

1. Air Corps.

2. Cavalry.

3. Chemical Warfare Service.
4. Coast Artillery Corps.
5. Corps of Engineers.
6. Field Artillery.
7. Infantry.
8. Medical Department.
9. Ordnance Department.
10. Quartermaster Corps.
11. Signal Corps.
12. Chaplains.
13. Inspector General's Department.
14. Finance Department.

(b) When in parentheses following C, H, or K, numbers indicate the number of copies to be furnished.

(3) Where a letter is not followed by any numbers, it indicates that the pamphlet is distributed to all the individuals, headquarters, or offices described by that letter. Numbers following a letter indicate that the distribution is limited to the individuals, headquarters, or offices of those arms and services identified by the numbers. Where a dash (—) is used between numbers, it indicates that all the serial numbers between the end numbers are included in the distribution.

c. Examples of symbols.
